  )ss.:
COUNTY OF ROCKLAND    )

ROBERT MICHAEL MILLER, being duly sworn, hereby deposes and, under the penalties of perjury, states as follows:

1. My name is Robert Michael Miller and I reside at 5 Tioken Road, Hillcrest in the Town of Ramapo, New York.
2. I am a registered voter and arrived at my polling place St. Joseph's Church in Spring Valley at approximately 3:00 PM, to vote in the Town of Ramapo special election that was held on September 30, 2014 (the "Special Election").
3. Several people standing around in the polling place while the poll 'Captain', who was on the phone. The voters were waiting for affidavit ballots.
4. The Captain said she was only given 10 affidavit ballots, and she had been trying all day to contact the list of people she was given by the Town of Ramapo and had been unsuccessful in reaching
5. I told her that according to an article published in the "Journal News" stated that, "Unlike most local elections, Tuesday's referendums are administered under New York State municipal law, which allows people to vote if they are at least 18 years of age, and can prove residency, even though they are not registered voters, according to the Rockland County Board of Elections".
6. The Captain was unaware of this, and said she would have to get the okay from her bosses before doing this.
7. While this confusing was going on about who could vote, potential voters were leaving out of frustration with this process.

8. Shortly thereafter. Town Clerk Chris Sampson showed up. The Captain asked him for affidavit ballots. He said he had already distributed all of the affidavit ballots equally to all of the polls. And it turns out some polls were also short, so we've been delivering more throughout the day and he had run out of affidavit ballots. Chris Sampson said, more affidavit ballots were on the way.

9. Meanwhile, potential voters were leaving. I ask him. "if I went to Staples and had copies made, would that be acceptable?"

10. Sampson said, "He couldn't agree to that without checking with his lawyer first."

11. All the while, he was on the phone with someone, and he kept 'going outside talking to someone in an SUV parked directly in front of the entry to the polling place.

12. Shortly thereafter, a person came in and gave the Captain 17 affidavit ballots.

13. I told him that's not nearly enough, and again asked if I could have copies made? I had observed the last affidavit ballot the Captain had was a poorly made copy.

14. Sampson left without answering my question. I left too and went outside the church.

15. I didn't know who was in the SUV, that Sampson had been consulting with, until a potential voter ask me why was Brendel Logan parked in front of the polling place.

16. I went up to the SUV, and observed Brendel and Bernard Charles in the car.

17. Brendel said "Michael I am here waiting for Chris Sampson in case you want to know"

18. I said. "Yes I do want to know why she was there," and I starting video recording her car.

19. The average-looking man who brought the 17 affidavit ballots came outside, got into the car, and then they drove off.

20. Upon information and belief, I believe there was a concerted effort by Brendel Logan and Chris Sampson to prevent potential new voters, who support the referendum from being able to vote.
