NAN KLEIN, an attorney duly admitted to practice law in the Courts of the State of New York, hereby affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

1. My name is Nan Klein and I reside at 1 Plum Hill Drive in the Village of Montebello, Town of Ramapo, New York.
2. My children attempted to vote by absentee ballot in the Town of Ramapo special election held on September 30, 2014. I had them fill out the absentee ballot applications and I delivered them to the Town of Ramapo Clerk's office, along with my husband's absentee ballot application.
3. I received a call from the Town to pick up the absentee ballots. When I arrived, I was informed that my children's ballot applications had been mailed back home because they were not registered to vote.
4. No one at the Town made any mention whatsoever about their eligibility to vote by affidavit ballot on the day of the elections.
5. I was very upset when someone called me on Election Day to tell me they witnessed a voter voting by affidavit ballot, and I first learned on election day that unregistered voters were being allowed to vote.
6. I felt that my children and possibly others like them who were qualified to be registered voters were denied the opportunity to vote. At the same time people who may or may not have been qualified to register as voters were permitted to vote in person by affidavit. No one advised me or my children that they could have voted by affidavit ballot on election day.

7. I was so upset I called Michael Klein, the Town attorney, to inform him of this disparate treatment.

8. I believe the Town intentionally failed to advise myself or my children that they could have voted by affidavit ballot even though they were not registered voters.
